MEDIA GUIDE 2025

LEAGUE OF IRELAND

LEAGUE OF IRELAND, DIRECTOR MARK SCANLON

After a brilliant 2024, we are more excited than ever for a massive season ahead in the League of Ireland. I'd like to thank the members of the media for their continued excellent coverage of our League which is growing every season with more and more in depth analysis and variety of formats every week.

Indeed, we are striving to bring the League to more and more people each week and that is evident by a host of exciting developments in the off season ahead of the new campaign.

We are thrilled to embark on a new journey with Virgin Media Television in the SSE Airtricity Men's Premier Division as the new exclusive broadcaster for the Division will show 36 live games this year marking the first time we will have a game a week in the Division's history on free-to-air television,

As LOITV continues to grow, we have agreed a new deal with Premier Sports who have enabled us to build a new platform along with the first apps for the streaming service. LOITV has never been more accessible with a range of new subscription models to cater for all demand bringing unrivalled access to over 450 live games across the three Divisions in 2025.

We are also delighted to extend our agreement with TG4 in the SSE Airtricity Women's Premier Division as we will have 14 live games including the Women's All-Island Cup Final live on TG4 in 2025.

Alongside our new television and streaming agreements, we also have a new landmark deal with Off The Ball and Newstalk which will bring live coverage across national radio and expert analysis and shows throughout their digital platforms.

This all means we will have all the exciting storylines whether it be the title races, promotion pushes or the hunt for Europe in more ways than ever before.

It has never been more exciting to be a supporter of the League of Ireland and as attendances and audiences continue to grow, I would like to wish all the players, fans, staff members, volunteers and members of the media the best of luck in the upcoming season.

It's set to be the best ever.

NATIONAL LEAGUES COMMITTEE CHAIRPERSON DERMOT AHERN

I'd like to start by welcoming the media to a new and even more exciting season of the League of Ireland. After record TV audiences and attendances 2024 and the continued growth in the Clubs' fanbases, we are in for one of the best years of football across the country.

The National Leagues Committee (NLC), of which I am Chairperson, oversees the Men's Premier and First Divisions, and the Women's Premier Division as well as the LOI Academy Development Programme. Our responsibilities are to support the Board of the FAI in the promotion and administration of all professional, and elite level adult football together with all underage leagues run by the FAI. We hope to build on the excellent work carried out by the committee in the past year and to help create a brilliant future for all of our Clubs.

Great credit must go to all stakeholders around the League, including the Clubs, their staff, players, volunteers and media for seeing the rise in attendances and increased coverage of the League of Ireland. Last year also saw the award of record funding for facilities through the Large Scale Sports Infrastructure Fund and the Community Sports Facilities Fund and we wish to thank the Government for recognising the need to invest in our facilities and we are also encouraged to see funding support for the LOI Academies form part of the new Programme for Government.

With more eyes than ever on our League, now is the time to create much larger audiences for the magnificent football product, here, on our own doorstep.

Finally on behalf of the National League Committee, I would like to thank SSE Airtricity for their continued support of the League of Ireland with their sponsorship of the SSE Airtricity Men's Premier Division, SSE Airtricity Men's First Division and the SSE Airtricity Women's Premier Division. I also want to thank DMG Media for their continued support as official media partner of the League, new partner Rocksore and EA SPORTS for their sponsorship of the LOI Academy. Enjoy the new season!

LEAGUE OF IRELAND
MEN'S PREMIER DIVISION

2024 STATS

- Shelbourne won their first league title since 2006, making it 14 SSE Airtricity Men's Premier Division titles for Shels, with only Shamrock Rovers (21) ahead of them and Dundalk who are also on 14.
- Runners-up Shamrock Rovers scored a division-high eight goals after high turnovers this season with only Sligo registering more high turnovers overall (294 to Rovers' 267). (HighTurnovers are the number of sequences starting in open play and beginning 40m or less from the opp goal).
- St. Patrick's Athletic picked up a division-high 14 points from losing positions in the SSE Airtricity Men's Premier Division in 2024, while conversely, Bohemians threw away a whopping 24 points from leading positions, seven more than any other side.
- 12 of Galway United's 13 wins in the league in 2024 came despite having a lower share of possession than the opposition, the most of any side in the competition.
- Shamrock Rovers' boss, Stephen Bradley made 99 changes to his side's starting line-ups, the most of any team during the campaign.
- Sligo Rovers fielded the youngest starting XI on average in the league this season (23 years 276 days), while Galway United had the oldest (28 years 251 days).
- Brandon Kavanagh registered the most goal involvements in 2024, scoring six and assisting 14, with those 20 goal involvements winning Pa'ts 22 points, also the most of any player in the competition.
- Sligo goalkeeper, Edward McGinty, 'prevented' an incredible 14 goals during the campaign, 10 more than any other 'keeper, with that figure coming via Expected Goals On Target Conceded minus Goals Conceded (ex. Own-goals). The Scottish born glovesman saw his side concede an xGoT figure of 63 while conceding 49.
